

Dear Parents and Carers,

Firstly, a huge congratulations to Remi and to Sam, who have been making great progress with their Taekwondo! Both boys continued their training via Zoom during lockdown, and have recently passed their gradings. They are both now yellow belts! Well done to both boys. It was great to hear them sharing this news in our whole-school celebration assembly on Zoom last week!

We have some enjoyable events coming up for the children over the next couple of weeks. Next week, some of our Year 5 and 6 children will be taking part in 'Bikeability' from Monday to Wednesday, developing their practical cycling skills and learning how to ride safely on the roads. I will update you next week about how they get on! On the last day of the half term, Friday 28th May, we will be holding a non-uniform/pyjama day as part of the Book Trust's fundraiser 'Pyjamarama 2021'. You can find out more details below, and we hope that this will be an inspiring day for all children and continue to develop their love of reading.

Lastly, we are about to launch our new 'Sex and Relationships Education' curriculum in the coming weeks. Before we do this, we will hold a parent information and consultation session to keep you up to date with the key changes. Look out for this date coming up shortly – we will share this on Class Dojo, by email and on the bulletin.

Book Trust Pyjamarama Day
 Friday 28th May

Book Trust hold this event annually, to raise money to get all children reading, and provide every child with a bedtime story. Nationally, this event is taking place today, but we thought this would be a lovely way to end out half term. Children can come to school in their pyjamas (or any non-uniform) for a donation of £1 to Book Trust. They could bring along their favourite bedtime story too!

PD Day

We postponed a PD day back in February due to the lockdown, and this has now been re-arranged and is a Trust-wide training event. This will take place on 12th July. Therefore, school will be closed to pupils on that day.

WORSHIP

This half term, in worship, we will be focusing on the Christian value of perseverance. Next week, we will be looking at "Meeting a personal challenge" (Philippians 4.13). If children have any prayers, linked to this theme, that they would like to share during worship, they would be very welcome to do so.
