

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you for your kind donations for Book Trust, as part of our Pyjamarama Day today! It was great to see children in non-uniform, and some in their PJs, and the children have enjoyed some fun activities linked to bedtime stories and reading throughout the day. This has also helped to raise valuable funds for a fantastic charity, which aims to ensure that all children grow up with access to books, and can develop their love of reading.

Hopefully, you have all accessed the resources provided as Phase 1 of the Relationships and Sex Education Parent Consultation. Phase 2 is a parent questionnaire, and the link for this has been sent by email, via Class Dojo and is also below. Phase 3 will be a Zoom meeting where we can share more of our resources, and answer any questions you might have. The date for this is also shown below. I look forward to hearing your feedback, and meeting with as many of you as possible over Zoom.

Lastly, I would like to wish all of our families a very enjoyable half term break. We have a lot to look forward to next half term, as we aim to hold (in some form) as many of our end of year activities as we possibly can. I will share details of these after the break!
