

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week, Skylark and Kingfisher Classes have been busy, as they've been out on their first school trips in quite a while!

Skylark Class had a wonderful time at Ford Green Hall yesterday! They received a tour of the house, helping them to understand what life was like in 1666. They also took part in a workshop with Samuel Pepys, learning about his very important job and what happened to him during the Great Fire of London.

Kingfisher Class visited Shrewsbury Museum, where they talked about Tudor life in Shrewsbury. They looked at some Tudor artifacts and tried to guess what they for, and they tried on Tudor clothing and were able to create a Tudor house using wooden beams. In the afternoon they went on a tour around Shrewsbury looking all the old Tudor buildings that still remain.

Coming up soon, Kingfisher Class have their road safety visit to Market Drayton ('Stepping Out'), and then we have our Christmas events to look forward to, with the older children going to the panto, and the younger children enjoying a visit from Jake the Storyteller and Mrs Mifflin the Forest School leader. Keep a close eye on the 'upcoming events' listed below!
